Situation

This charming Georgian styled town house has been the subject of much improvement by the present vendor. Retaining period features and installing underfloor heating to all floors. There are working fireplaces and feature fireplaces. All original. There are flagstone floors and exposed timber floors and modern fixtures and fittings to the bathrooms. This property has an air of space with good sized reception rooms and bedrooms. This property is individual and does offer flexible accommodation set within this interesting town house, being within walking distance of the town centre.

The agent recommends early viewing on this property.

The market town of Pershore is Georgian styled and provides high street shopping facilities and supermarket together with an indoor market and leisure complex. The river Avon runs to the east of the town lending itself to scenic walks and leisure pursuits. There are two medical centres and hospital and town library, together with excellent educational facilities within the area. Pershore has Number 8 which is run by voluntary help and provides theatre activities, a cinema, ballet and yoga classes and is very much a part of Pershore community living.

The new Worcestershire Parkway Station has been developed to improve the access and destinations to the south west, the north east, London and the Thames Valley. So significantly enhancing Worcestershire's connectivity to outline regions. The motorway is approximately nine miles distant at Worcester junction 7 of the M5, bringing Birmingham to the north and Bristol to the south within commutable distance. Other main centres are Stratford-upon-Avon with the theatre and racecourse, Cheltenham with National Hunt horseracing and the Everyman Theatre and major main shopping facilities, Worcester with famous Cathedral and equally famous cricket club together with the River Severn and good shopping centre.
